Liverpool Art Fair: Print Edition, 15th & 16th December 2012

Next weekend, join us at Camp and Furnace for the Liverpool Art Fair: Print Edition, showcasing a wide selection of locally produced original and limited edition prints by over 30 artists, all for sale at pocket friendly prices and perfect for some last minute Christmas shopping!

The relaxed and welcoming Furnace room will host an array of screenprints, etchings, photographs and more for you to peruse while enjoying a delicious freshly cooked lunch, a tasty Sunday Roast, or perhaps sampling the venue's very own Brown Bear beer!

Ian Richards, manager at Camp and Furnace, and member of the selection panel for the Print Edition (which also included Laura Davies, Arts Editor of the Liverpool Post, Jason Jones, Fine Artist and Gallery Manager at The Cornerstone Gallery, Felicity Wren of the Domino Gallery) commented: "We are delighted to host this second Liverpool Art Fair event at Camp and Furnace, as we feel it appeals to our eclectic range of discerning customers, as well as fitting well with our ethos of supporting local artists, makers and small businesses. We're really looking forward to a great weekend of art, food and festive fun."

All the work on show will be for sale and priced under £150, making this a fantastic opportunity to buy unique Christmas presents and support local artists and designers at the same time.

Opening times:

Saturday 15th December: 12-6pm

Sunday 16th December: 12-8pm

Location:

Camp and Furnace, 67 Greenland Street, Liverpool L1 0BY
